STELLER SECONDARY SENIOR "PREPARING FOR COLLEGE" CALENDAR

	September		October		November		December		January
>	Register for Oct or	>	Register for December	>	Send in U of A	>	Take SAT I or	>	Request 7 th semester
	Nov SAT		ACT, SAT and/or SAT		applications as early in		II or ACT, if		transcripts be sent to >	Register for October		II.		the month as possible.		needed.		colleges that request
	ACT.	>	Take ACT and/or SAT	>	Take SAT I or SAT II.	>	Work on and		them.
>	Update student		I or II.	>	Register for December		send in private	>	Check with teachers, questionnaire forms.	>	Attend College Night		ACT.		college		counselor and colleges >	Meet with counselor to		and various college	>	Finish all rough draft		applications as		that all forms have review college list &		information programs.		applications & essays.		you finish		been mailed.
	your graduation	≻	Finish research,		Review them w/		them.	$\triangleright$	Let your counselor requirements.		compare colleges, and		counselor, teacher, &	≻	Plan holiday		know your first choice >	Call any colleges you		reduce list to five to ten		parent.		visits to		colleges. Stay in have not contacted for		schools.	>	Give all recommendation		colleges		contact with your applications; organize	>	Plan visits and		and secondary school	>	Collect		representative at those files; photocopy		interviews to colleges		evaluation forms to		Financial Aid		colleges. Ask if you applications; begin		while they are in		teachers and counselor to		information and		can send any rough drafts.		session (send thank		complete.		pick up FAFSA		additional academic or >	Remind your parents		you).	>	Apply to your "choice		forms in the		talent information or to gather financial	>	Attend college		colleges." Make sure		counseling	_	letters.
	records & get financial		weekends.		you have all the	_	office.		Watch application _	counseling if needed.	>	Work on rough draft		necessary paperwork	>	Attend	1	deadlines.
>	Decide the number of	_	essays and applications. Send in "early	_	turned in.		Financial Aid		Keep sending your colleges and cost of	>		>	Observe deadlines. Send		Night.		applications. It is not >	applying. Submit PROFILE		decision," "early action" applications.		transcripts and test scores.				too late to apply to many colleges.
	registration form for	>	Begin U of A	>	Keep your grades up.			$\triangleright$	FAFSA may be sent
		_		_
	schools requiring	1	Applications		Colleges do look at				anytime after January schools requiring PROFILE	A	Applications. Watch scholarships		Colleges do look at semester & year-end				anytime after January schools requiring PROFILE.	>	Applications. Watch scholarships.		Colleges do look at semester & year-end grades!				anytime after January  1.
	PROFILE.	>	Watch scholarships.		semester & year-end grades!				1.
	PROFILE.  February		Watch scholarships.  March		semester & year-end grades!  April		May		June
A	PROFILE.  February Check that the college	A	Watch scholarships.  March Submit tax forms to the	A	semester & year-end grades!  April All colleges should	&gt;	Mail in deposit	A	June Congratulations,
&gt;	February Check that the college has received financial,		March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of		semester & year-end grades!  April  All colleges should respond.	A	Mail in deposit to one college		June Congratulations, Graduate!
>	February Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all		March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request	A A	April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish	A	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign	AA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer.
>	February Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you	>	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them.		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if	>	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return	A	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it.
>	February Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing		March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to	>	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award		June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final
	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?	>	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings	>	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if	A	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to
> >	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges.		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write	A	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received	AA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor.
	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may	>	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept	A	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept	A	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising
	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive,		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not.	A	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it.	AA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses,
	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and		Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan	AA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs,
	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college.	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for).		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not.		Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it.	AA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days
>	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your		April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your	A	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications.	AA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your
>	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college.  Pursue scholarships;	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for).	A	April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision.	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams.	AA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days
\ \ \	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college.  Pursue scholarships;  Watch due dates.	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your colleges receive it.	A	April All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision. Wait listed? Write	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams. Fill out housing	AAAA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your college.
\ \ \	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college.  Pursue scholarships;  Watch due dates.  Stay calm and enjoy your senior year.  Send thank you notes	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your colleges receive it.	A	April  All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision. Wait listed? Write "pleading letter" and ask for help. Most colleges decide in June/July.	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams. Fill out housing forms, if	AAAA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your college. Read books on how to survive in college – physically,
\( \text{\tin}\text{\tetx{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\tin}\text{\ti}\tint{\text{\texit{\text{\texit{\text{\texi}\text{\text{\texit{\titil\titil\titit{\texitit{\text{\texi}\tiint{\texit{\texi{\texi}\titil\texititt{\texit{\texi{\texi{\texi{\texi{\texi{\tet	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college. Pursue scholarships; Watch due dates.  Stay calm and enjoy your senior year.  Send thank you notes to teachers, counselor,	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your colleges receive it.	A	April  All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision. Wait listed? Write "pleading letter" and ask for help. Most colleges decide in June/July. Register for AP tests.	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams. Fill out housing forms, if	AAAA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your college. Read books on how to survive in college – physically, emotionally, and
\( \text{\tin}\text{\tetx{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\tin}\text{\ti}\tint{\text{\texit{\text{\texit{\text{\texi}\text{\text{\texit{\titil\titil\titit{\texitit{\text{\texi}\tiint{\texit{\texi{\texi}\titil\texititt{\texit{\texi{\texi{\texi{\texi{\texi{\tet	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college. Pursue scholarships;  Watch due dates.  Stay calm and enjoy your senior year.  Send thank you notes to teachers, counselor, and anyone who	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your colleges receive it.	A	April  All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision.  Wait listed? Write "pleading letter" and ask for help. Most colleges decide in June/July. Register for AP tests. Start looking for a	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams. Fill out housing forms, if	A A A A	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your college. Read books on how to survive in college – physically, emotionally, and academically.
\( \text{\tin}\text{\tetx{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\text{\tin}\text{\ti}\tint{\text{\texit{\text{\texit{\text{\texi}\text{\text{\texit{\titil\titil\titit{\texitit{\text{\texi}\tiint{\texit{\texi{\texi}\titil\texititt{\texit{\texi{\texi{\texi{\texi{\texi{\tet	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college. Pursue scholarships;  Watch due dates.  Stay calm and enjoy your senior year.  Send thank you notes to teachers, counselor, and anyone who helped you through the	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your colleges receive it.	A .	April  All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision.  Wait listed? Write "pleading letter" and ask for help. Most colleges decide in June/July. Register for AP tests. Start looking for a summer job. You may	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams. Fill out housing forms, if	AAAA	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your college. Read books on how to survive in college – physically, emotionally, and academically. Send thank you notes
A A A	February Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now? Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college. Pursue scholarships; Watch due dates. Stay calm and enjoy your senior year. Send thank you notes to teachers, counselor, and anyone who helped you through the process.	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your colleges receive it.	A .	April  All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision.  Wait listed? Write "pleading letter" and ask for help. Most colleges decide in June/July. Register for AP tests. Start looking for a	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams. Fill out housing forms, if	A A A A	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your college. Read books on how to survive in college – physically, emotionally, and academically. Send thank you notes for any scholarships
A A	PROFILE.  February  Check that the college has received financial, test scores and all other forms. Can you apply for housing now?  Some college acceptance letters may arrive. Inform your counselor when you hear from a college. Pursue scholarships;  Watch due dates.  Stay calm and enjoy your senior year.  Send thank you notes to teachers, counselor, and anyone who helped you through the	A A	March Submit tax forms to the Financial Aid Office of colleges who request them. Send any new material that may help to colleges. Watch for Student Aid Report (SAR) to arrive, (amount of student aid you are eligible for). Make sure your colleges receive it.	A .	April  All colleges should respond. Decide where you wish to go. Revisit if necessary. Go to information meetings you are invited to. Write to the college you accept and those you do not. Inform counselor and teachers of your decision.  Wait listed? Write "pleading letter" and ask for help. Most colleges decide in June/July. Register for AP tests. Start looking for a summer job. You may	AA	Mail in deposit to one college by May 1. Sign and return financial award letter also, if you received one, to accept it. Fill out loan applications. AP exams. Fill out housing forms, if	A A A A	June Congratulations, Graduate! Enjoy your summer. You deserve it. Turn in your final transcript request to counselor. Attend all advising days, open houses, orientation programs, and registration days offered by your college. Read books on how to survive in college – physically, emotionally, and academically. Send thank you notes