

URBAN ESKIMO LANGUAGE REVITALIZATION

YUP'IK—IÑUPIAQ—TEACH—LEARN

The Alaska Native Heritage Center is pleased to announce contractual position openings for the revitalization of Urban Eskimo languages, Yup'ik and Iñupiaq! Come be a part of our language program!

We are currently seeking fluent speakers and learners to join our language team! Positions available:

- ◇ 4 Yup'ik Teachers & 1 Inupiaq Teacher
- ◇ 2 Yup'ik Assist. Teachers & 2 Inupiaq Assist. Teachers
- ◇ 1 Yup'ik & Inupiaq Language Advisor
- ◇ 1 Yup'ik Elder & 4 Inupiaq Elders

This project will bring people together to:

- Learn & Develop teaching methods
- Prepare materials and lesson plans
- Lead multigenerational language classes
- Prepare immersion camps/day camps

A nonprofit organization

For more information or to schedule an interview, please contact:

Language Project Director, Marcella Asicksik at the Alaska Native Heritage Center

907-330-8018 or MAicksik@alaskanative.net

