Sexual Intimacy Policy

Identity, Inc. supports comprehensive sexual health education for youth. Many young people do not receive adequate sex-education in their schools that speaks to the needs of LGBTQ2 and allied youth. Sex between individuals should be safe, informed, and consensual.

HOWEVER, sexual activity and intimacy between all participants at Identity sponsored events is absolutely prohibited in order to create a safe, respectful, experience for everyone. We ask that you agree to not take part in sexual activity and intimacy while you are at the Retreat.

Q: What is allowed under this policy?

A: People can engage in behavior that is consistent with friendship. That is holding hands, walking close together, small kisses on the cheek when saying goodbye, talking to each other and spending free time together.

Q: What is not allowed?

A: Anything that goes beyond holding hands or having a conversation. Kissing on the lips, close physical contact (i.e. cuddling, spooning), or any activity that involves less articles of clothing that you would wear to church or school, is not allowed. Public displays other than those listed are not allowed.
