Attention Educators:

The University of Alaska will give an application fee waiver to students attending College Goal Sunday on February 10, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. Please remember that the purpose of this event is to assist students with filling out the FAFSA, not with applying to college. We ask that you read the following announcement to students to ensure they understand that the volunteers at this event are there to help with the FAFSA not admissions and applications questions.

Attention Students: All students who attend College Goal Sunday on February 10th can apply for admission at no charge to any University of Alaska campus before 5:00p.m. on Monday the 11th. Please remember that the purpose of this event is to assist students with filling out the FAFSA, not with applying to college. If you have questions about how to apply using this waiver please follow the directions on our link on the College Goal Sunday webpage or contact the University of Alaska Anchorage at 907-786-1480.
