

Come Outside With Us!

Camp Fire

Summer Camps for Teens

Learn more and register
@ www.campfireak.org!
Scholarships are available.

Camp Si-La-Meo Teen Trek (ages 13-15)

June 19-23, $300

With Camp Si-La-Meo (day camp) in Anchorage as their base, campers will head out each day into Alaska's beautiful natural world. At the end of the week, they will plan and organize an overnight camping trip.

Teen Treks at Camp K on Kenai Lake (ages 13-17)

Voyagers: July 8-14 or July 23-29 / Trailblazers: July 16-22, $425

Based out of Camp K on Kenai Lake in Cooper Landing. Trailblazers will backpack and Voyagers will canoe their way across the beautiful Kenai Peninsula. Campers develop outdoor living and leadership skills in a unique, fun way!

Pathfinders at Camp K on Kenai Lake (ages 9-14)

June 4-9, June 25-30, July 23-28, $380

Pathfinders experience the full array of Camp K programs, adding gradually more challenging activities including an overnight camp-out and cook-out.

Challengers at Camp K on Kenai Lake (ages 10-16)

July 6-14, $540

Designed for older campers, this extended session is packed full of activities for exciting skill building and personal growth. Advanced target sports, hiking, boating and camping are just some of the activities!

Leader In Training at Camp K on Kenai Lake (ages 16-17)

June 4-30, No cost - applications accepted online.

A multi-week opportunity for older teens to enhance leadership skills, co-lead camp experiences for younger campers, and gain readiness skills for college and the workplace. LIT's spend an extended time at camp, but come home each weekend.